ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of the association shall be “The Southwest Academy of Management” (hereafter referred to as SWAM).

ARTICLE II. MISSION & PURPOSE

Mission
To promote the advancement of teaching, research, and practice in the academic field of management. To achieve this objective, SWAM shall provide an annual conference and other mechanisms for the interchange of ideas, experience, and information among educators in collegiate schools of business and others who have an interest in the development, extension, unification, and application of knowledge pertaining to management.

Purpose
SWAM is organized for exclusively religious, charitable, educational and scientific purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under said Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. Specifically, SWAM will provide educational programs to the public.

Collateral Objectives
a. To promote a wider acquaintance and closer cooperation among those interested in the theory and practice of management.

b. To stimulate research and creative thinking by members and to disseminate the results from such activities as broadly as possible.

c. To participate in activities which will promote management education and development.

d. To promote and enhance the status of the management educator and the management practitioner in our society.

e. To cooperate with other societies and associations which have objectives and interests like SWAM.

f. To promote and participate in other activities which are compatible with the objectives of SWAM.
ARTICLE III. MEMBERSHIP

1. Membership in SWAM shall be available to individuals interested and engaged in advancing the theory and philosophy of management through teaching, research, practice, or publication. The candidate shall share the mission and objectives of SWAM.

2. Candidates for membership shall submit their application to the Membership Chair, at any time. Procedures to be elected into the membership shall follow the provisions in the by-laws.

ARTICLE IV. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE COMPOSITION, OFFICERS, and DIRECTORS.

1. Executive Committee

1.1. The Executive Committee includes all officers and directors of SWAM. Each member has equal responsibility and power to carry out the mission and objectives of SWAM.

2. Officers

2.1. The elected officers of the Southwest Academy shall be the Immediate Past President, President, President Elect, Vice President-Program Chair, and Vice President Elect. The Officers are elected and move through a five year cycle of progressive leadership in SWAM.

2.1.1. The Immediate Past President. The Immediate Past President shall serve a term of one year, to commence immediately following their one year term as president. They serve on the Executive Committee, chair the Nominating Committee and conduct the election of officers.

2.1.2. The President. The President shall preside over all organization meetings, and delegate this authority as required to maintain organizational functioning. The President shall chair the Executive Committee and serve as the chief executive officer of the Southwest Academy. They should conduct the activities of the Southwest Academy in a manner that assures the accomplishment of its objectives, subject to the provisions of the Constitution and Bylaws, and the concurrence of the Executive Committee in matters of policy. The President shall authorize expenditures of the Southwest Academy’s funds, report on the status and progress of the Southwest Academy at its annual meeting, and ensure a smooth transition is made between outgoing and incoming officers. Upon completion of their term as President, the President assumes the office of Immediate Past President.

2.1.3. The President Elect. The President Elect shall act for the President in the President’s absence or inability to carry out the responsibilities of the office. The President Elect appoints and chairs the Distinguished Educator, Best Paper Award, and Best Reviewer Committees. In addition, the President Elect organizes the reception and all other necessary catering at the annual meeting with full responsibility for all arrangements necessary. Execution of these duties should be carefully coordinated with the Treasurer, Program Chair, and the Executive Committee. The President Elect shall coordinate and conduct the Junior Faculty Consortium. The President elect shall perform other duties as may be assigned by the President, the Constitution, or the Bylaws. The President Elect’s succession to the office of the President shall not be affected by having to assume the office of the current President, if necessary. Following their term as President Elect, they shall assume the office of President.

2.1.4. The Vice President-Program Chair. The Vice President-Program Chair shall serve as the Program Chair of the annual meeting with full responsibility for all arrangements necessary for the program. Should SWAM coordinate with another entity to host a conference, the Vice President-Program Chair serves as liaison to this organization. Execution of all duties related to the Southwest Academy of Management Conference should be carefully coordinated with the Executive Committee. They also perform other duties as may be assigned by the President, the President Elect, the Constitution, or the Bylaws. The Vice President-Program Chair shall succeed the current President Elect at the termination of the President Elect’s year in office.

2.1.5. The Vice President-Program Chair Elect. The Vice President-Program Chair Elect shall assist the Vice President-Program Chair with the annual meeting, including coordinating and conducting the evaluation of sessions at the annual meeting, and surveying attendees regarding their overall satisfaction with the annual conference.

2.1.5.1. They shall work to publish the annual Proceedings for the Southwest Academy in coordination with the Vice President – Program Chair and Executive Committee.
2.1.5.2. The Vice President-Program Chair Elect shall prepare and conduct a training session at the annual meeting for Track Chairs and volunteers.
2.1.5.3. The Vice President-Program Chair Elect is responsible for attending the site of the next SWAM conference (i.e., the site where they will serve as Vice President – Program Chair), and receiving any information or training, as required. This visit shall be coordinated and assigned either by an entity engaged with SWAM to coordinate the conference or by the SWAM Executive Board itself, no later than 9 months prior to the upcoming conference (e.g., in July the year prior to a March conference). SWAM will reimburse the Vice President-Program Chair elect for approved travel costs related to these trainings that are not covered by the organization delivering the training (i.e., if that organization is not SWAM).
2.1.5.4. The Vice President-Program Chair Elect shall perform other duties as may be assigned by the Program Chair, the President, the President Elect, the Constitution, and the Bylaws. The Vice President-Program Chair Elect shall succeed the current Program Chair at the termination of the Vice President-Program Chair’s one year in office.
